Michae J. Belleau v Kevin C. Greene

Civil Action No. 12-C-1198

Motion For No-Evidence

U.S. District Court
Eastern District of Wis.
125 Jefferson St.
Green Bay, Wis. 54301-4541

---

Motion For No-Evidence
Rules of Civil Pro. 166a(i).

Based on the fact that the adverse party has not come forward with any documentation, for a showing of any material facts to support a claim or defense .

And after an adequate time for discovery by the respondent, the movant now asks the court for summary judgment on the ground that there is no evidence of one or more essential elements of a claim or defense on which an adverse party would have the burden of proof at trial. Therefore, there is no real need for a jury trial. [FN 1]

As found in Case No.2003CI1002, filed on July 6th. 2010 in Brown County Circuit Court Branch IV. Wherein the 'State's Stipulation For Discharge' his Hon.Kendall Kelly, Assistant District Attorney Kevin Greene and Dr. Elwood did stipulate to the fact's in law, thought out this hearing it went 'Undisputed'. As found in the transcripts,drafted and signed by A.D.A. Kevin C. Greene. [FN 2]

Therefore, the court should grant the motion for relief, as the respondent has not produces summary judgment evidence raising a genuine issue of material fact. That will coincide with the same relative position(s) of the 'Rules of Civil Pro. 166a(i).'

Respectfully ;

Michael J. Belleau
